

Moon Phase Calendar

Your Daily Moon Journal Diary

Must include:

- The date and the time you saw the moon at the top line of the page
- A drawing or photograph of what you saw: This should be neatly drawn and about the size of a 50 cent piece.

Draw the 50 cent piece, then draw what you see of the moon in white.

In addition: you must include:

- Moon rise AND moon set for here in San Diego
- The direction you were facing when you saw the moon
- The PHASE the moon is in PLUS:
- Something interesting that happened to you today!

2-3 sentences.

Photographs of the moon are awesome and get extra credit!

Remember you need to record every day.

You will NOT see the moon on Mar 1 as it is a NEW MOON. BUT write moon rise/set and draw it
